GREETINGS ONE AND ALL,

Amidst the ever changing moods of winter that hold Albany at its mercy (and even more so with this Greenhouse Effect thig-a-ma-jig, where it can literally be June in January!), the music happenings are, in my modest opinion, bursting out of the seams that hold the fabric of the Capital District together. THE SHOW that, in this already shitty year of 1991, is and will define rock 'n' roll till the end of the century is coming here. Neil Young with some new found pals Sonic Youth & Social Distortion will be in the cozy refrigerator known as the R.P.I. Fieldhouse on February 9th. Sure, all you really big city hep-cats are saying, "So what's the fucking deal? I saw them in Madison Square Garden!" This a HUGE event for this area and even though I'm a part-time resident here, I sincerely hope this is a sign of bigger events to come to this town!!!

Local music is happening as well! I'll point your collective attention to the LIVE AT THE QE2 compilation (#25 on this week's chart). Some of the finest local talent (including the Rouse Brothers and Pathos Plan from Rockville County and Big Barn Burning from Boston) barnstormed the Q for two weeks last April. This C.D. is a great representation of those two weeks. It is the vinyl..uh...plastic fruition of what Char & Dave Shortsleeve of the QE2 have set out to do since the club's opening in 1986. For more info about the compilation and the constant hip happenings at the club, please write SWEETFISH/MIA PRODUCTIONS/QE2 12 CENTRAL AVE., ALBANY, N.Y. 12210.

Local favorites PRIVATE PLAIN have an E.P. out titled GODWATCHING. The lineup has been fortified recently with the additon of ex-DIRTY FACE guitarist Jim Caringi. The band hopes to be getting those babies out to the college radio frontier and perhaps on a few record company desks!! (Center Stage Productions, P.O. Box 3173, Albany, N.Y. 12203)

The band that I think is the premiere '60's tinged garage unit on the East Coast (YES!!! I mean bigger than the CYNICS!!!) is back! 1313 MOCKINGBIRD LANE have a brand new single out! MONKEY CAGE GIRL/PRETTY BOYS is some more of the Rickenbacker/Vox Continental filled punk rhythyms that fueled their debut L.P. HAVE HEARSE, WILL TRAVEL (#32 on our 1990 50 mostest). They are already favorites at Venus Records & Midnight Records in New York City so pay attention already dammit! (SCARAB RECORDS, BOX 1382, ALBANY, N.Y. 12201)

BUT THAT'S NOT ALL!!!!! If you are looking to find out more about these bands and more about the Albany music scene and even all that it has to offer, then come on over to the ALBANY NEW MUSIC EXPO II. On April 17 & 18, 1991, several venues in Albany (including the QE2) will offer the regions best unsigned talent. The first expo held in 1989 was an overwhelming success so check it out. And if you're real good, you can come up and pay your good buddies here at 91FM a more than welcomed visit. Please feel free to contact the good folk putting on the Expo at P.O. BOX 3111, ALBANY, N.Y. 112203 or call (518) 427-9058. SO COME ON, CHECK IT OUT!!!!

Well I guess that is all for now. Look for the 1991 WCDB program guide which will be published in conjunction with BUZZ MAGAZINE in the next couple of months.

LATER!!!!
